

OVER YOU
(C.ASSAD/N. MAJOR)

Published by Virtual Artists Collective Publishing/ASCAP

When you threw my love away
That was my final day
I could never see myself
Living life without you
But then the next day came
Still I was without you
Please take flight from my mind
Let me leave you behind

Time became a friend to me
And I
Decided no more feeling blue
Cuz I
am happy to be over you
Over you...

I cleaned up the mess you made
Started new, left the shade
But passion that runs so deep
Never fully retreats
Love's blade left its mark
Memory in my heart
Scars fade but don't leave
You're in me when I breathe

I've moved on with no regrets
And I
Decided no more feeling blue
Cuz I
am happy to be over you
Over you...
