

HE (C.ASSAD/N. MAJOR)

Published by Virtual Artists Collective Publishing/ASCAP

I can't stop thinking this is for real
I have now met the one
And not just anyone
It's new what I feel, my heart's on the run to him

Despite the clouds, despite all the rain
I only live in the sun
Since our love has begun
No way I can explain how much everything has changed

He brings me coffee in bed
He's read the books that I've read
He is everything that I adore

Sirens screaming, sounds of the city
don't get in my ear
He's is all that I hear
I finally see how love makes life come alive

I'm not so sure if heaven exists
But I know that when we kiss
It's the meaning of bliss
We're living in paradise with a view for two

He heals me when I'm not well
He keeps the secrets I tell
He is everything that I adore

Love, has taken control of me
Love, has captured my soul indeed
Love, has swallowed me whole...
