

We cannot wait
(C.ASSAD/N. MAJOR)

Published by Virtual Artists Collective Publishing/ASCAP

We cannot rest
In lover's paradise
We two are only guests

Let's not think twice
The morning will come
And we'll have one day less

So let's dive into each day
As if it's our last
The clock is all I fear
I can hear it draw so near

I fear my love
Since time goes by so fast
We must learn how to cheat
The Gods above
Who treat love like a game
That we play but can't win
So let us hide the clocks
And bury our sins
We cannot lose a moment
We simply cannot wait

And still we have all this
True love that never ends
And time stops with your kiss
Or is this all just fantasy

So let's forget our sorrows
And challenge fate
Because my love
We cannot wait

Oh how I wish
That all the time we have is all that we will need

let's run my love
Let's run until we find a new eternity

So let's forget our sorrows
And challenge fate
Because my love
We cannot wait...
