

IT'S NOT YOU
(C.ASSAD/N. MAJOR)

When it was clear
The end was at hand
The words he used
were so well planned

Of all the things one could say
He had to dig out every cliché - he said...

Honey, my honey baby
We need to have a talk
Let's go out, let's take a walk

Don't take this the wrong way
But there's something I've gotta say ...

You're perfect you see
It's not you it's me
I adore your face
But I need my space

I gave you my heart
But we grew apart
I'm just not good enough for you...
