

YOU'LL GET IT BACK
(C.ASSAD/N. MAJOR)

Published by Virtual Artists Collective Publishing/ASCAP

You played my heart just like a toy
I should have known you were not a man
You're just a selfish boy
Who brought me tears and stole all my joys

I can't believe how blind I was
To think you were
The one for me
Back then I was meak
But I now can speak
And can finally see

You'll get it back honey
In time
You're a pitiful sight
You're not even that bright
You've crossed the line

I am gonna shut you down
And bribe a cop to get you out of town
Set your clothes on fire
Slash your precious Mercedes tires

I'll steal your credit cards
And buy all the things that money can buy
So that you will go broke, have yourself a stroke
And kiss this life goodbye

You'll get it back honey
In time
You're a pitiful sight
You're not even that bright
You'll get it back this time

You'll get it back honey
In time
If not from me

Then from destiny
Just wait and see

When your doggie runs away
Or no one calls on your birthday
We call that Karma, hun
The payment for the wrongs you have done

Don't be shocked when you get canned
And your waistline begins to expand
When your rent goes up and you cannot pay
that will make my day

You'll get it back honey
In time
You'll get it back ...

Because you played my heart just like a toy
I should have known you were not a man
You were just a selfish boy
Who brought me tears and crushed all my joys

I know revenge is not so cool
But I cannot help it
I'm feeling so cruel

You'll get it back honey...
You'll get it back, you'll get it back, honey
In time
